24th. A highly enjoyable time is anticipated as the occasion will no doubt be one where there will be "a feast of reason and flow of soul."

Last Monday night about 11 o'clock some unknown man supposed to be intoxicated entered the Neelley House on north main street, and wrapped at the door for some while and awakened all the young ladies that are boarding there and going to the Normal, they were frightened very much and their loud screams were heard piercing throughout the hotel, all the boys woke up at once and the gentleman was positively lead out of the yard by them. After which all continued to rest. The Democrat wishes they may not be disturbed any more by drunkards for they are troubled enough by sober boys.
